

PICKED UP IN MID-OCEAN.

THE LOST BOAT OF THE MONTREAL FOUND.

THE CASTAWAYS RESCUED BY A GERMAN VESSEL. AFTER FIVE DAYS DRIFTING AND LANDED IN ENGLAND.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—The City of Montreal's missing boat has been picked up and the seven passengers and six members of the crew who were in it are safe and well. The rescue was made on August 15 by a German vessel, the Mathilde, which arrived at Falmouth to-day with thirteen survivors on board. The Mathilde is a brigantine bound from Campeche for Falmouth.

The rescued men say that when their boat left the burning steamer there were fifteen persons on board. Finding it too crowded, two persons jumped overboard. The boat was nearly swamped twice, and the men had a hard struggle to keep her afloat by bailing.

On Friday they sighted a steamer and pulled toward her, signaling with a jacket and a handkerchief, but the steamer passed on without seeing them.

On Friday they sighted another steamer at a great distance.

On Saturday they sighted another vessel and pulled toward it, and found that it was the City of Montreal still burning. They tried to reach it, but to obtain more water, but her plates were too hot.

They drifted until Monday, when they were rescued by the Mathilde, which they tried to reach, but to obtain more water, but her plates were too hot.

On the first day after leaving the steamer they experienced very rough weather. They had a plentiful supply of bread and meat, but suffered from thirst. The weather was hot, and this greatly contributed to their discomfort. When rescued they were in latitude 42° 54' north, longitude 40° 49' west.

The British steamer Atlas has been chartered by the Imperial Line, and sailed from Queenstown to-day for New-York.

NEWS FROM THE SOUTHERN REPUBLICS.

TREASURE FOUND IN ANCIENT CEMETERY—DISCOVERIES IN COLOMBIA.

PAVANA, Aug. 24.—Interior Colombian newspapers continue to dilate upon the explorations recently conducted by Senor Jorge Isaacson on the shores of the Gulf of Uraba, on the Atlantic coast of Colombia. Near the shores of the Gulf he discovered some excellent coals, and valuable phosphates in large quantities were seen on an island in the bay.

The gold which is now being dug out of the ancient cemeteries at Pavana, and other places near Pavana, is said to be more than thirty times as rich as the gold of the same class which was found in the past four years. The gold is said to be of a fine quality, and the people are almost all antiquarians, and the majority of them have obtained sufficient to enable them to live in comfort.

Investors, miners, travelers and all scientific men are interested in remembering that the Government of Pavana is authorized to grant a reward of $10,000 silver to any one who discovers a new merchantable article of export. Under this law Senor Rafael Vanegas has filed two claims, one for the discovery and employment of a valuable medicinal plant; the second claim is based on the declaration that wild cocoa trees exist in profusion in the virgin forests which surround the water of the Gulf of Uraba.

The troops which left Trinidad early in March, and are now in number, for the first time, have captured the leader, Guayracho, who called himself "Christ, the Redeemer." He was taken to the capital, and is now in the hands of the authorities.

William C. Burdett, United States Consul at Havana, continues to be the object of bitter attacks in the press of the island. He is said to have been disrespectful to the country, its inhabitants and their habits.

CLOUDS DARKENING AROUND FERDINAND.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 24.—Russia's reply to the circular of the Porte suggested that an Ottoman Committee in London had been formed to solicit aid from the Sultan, and in a legal manner the election of a new Prince, which should elect a new Prince. This proposal, being submitted to the Powers, was sanctioned by France and Germany, but disapproved of by the other Powers, who advised the Porte to adopt a policy of moderation and to wait before making any decision.

M. Valukovich, Bulgarian agent, has handed to the Porte a telegram from Prince Ferdinand expressing his devotion to the Sultan, and asking permission to come to Constantinople to pay his homage to the Sultan. The Porte has replied to the telegram by replying to the telegram, informing the Prince that the Sultan cannot accept his proposal.

The Porte has also replied to the telegram by replying to the telegram, informing the Prince that the Sultan cannot accept his proposal. The Porte has also replied to the telegram by replying to the telegram, informing the Prince that the Sultan cannot accept his proposal.

RIOTERS SUBDUED BY ARTILLERY.

OSTEND, Aug. 24.—Two of the men wounded in the affray yesterday between Belgian and English fishermen have since died. A number of the Belgian fishermen today seized two English boats and refused to give them up. They were fired upon by the police, and four of them were wounded.

The rioting was renewed later in the day. In endeavoring to quell the disturbance the authorities resorted to the use of artillery, killing two rioters and wounding several others.

The civic guards have been superseded by military detachments, who have taken possession of the quays. A large number of the rioters have been arrested.

MARYLAND REPUBLICANS.

THEY NOMINATE A STATE TICKET. A BOMBHELL FOR THE GORMAN RING—THE DEADER OF THE CITIZENS' REFORM LEAGUE PLEDGES.

THE SUPPORT OF INDEPENDENT DEMOCRATS TO THE NOMINEES. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

BALTIMORE, Aug. 24.—Had a bombshell suddenly fallen into the Gorman camp, the Democratic machine politicians could not have been more surprised than they were today when John K. Cowan, the leader of the Citizens' Reform League, which recently brought ten fraudulent Democratic election judges to prison, walked into the Republican State Convention and proffered the support of himself and the independent Democrats of the State to the Republican ticket.

Although Mr. Cowan has long been fighting the Gorman clique and working to reform the election abuses in Maryland, the regular Democrats had not the slightest idea that he would endorse a straight-out Republican ticket. His action was an agreeable surprise to the Republicans, and when he entered the convention he created a great sensation.

The convention was harmonious throughout with the exception of a little contest in the delegation from the 1st Legislative District of Baltimore City, which was amicably adjusted. Congressman Louis E. McCormack of Washington County, the Republican candidate for the 1st District, was elected to the convention.

Just after the nominations were concluded Mr. Cowan stepped into the hall. The surprise his appearance first created gave way to an outburst of applause. The convention leader of the Reform League was given an ovation. Mr. Cowan said:

"It is curious for an independent Democrat like me to address a convention, but I want to say to myself, as well as for the body of independent Democrats of the State, that they are not to be deceived by the Gorman clique. I want to say to myself, as well as for the body of independent Democrats of the State, that they are not to be deceived by the Gorman clique.
